No. of Participants: 20

Resource person:

Prof. Narasimha Rao has worked in the length and breadth of Orissa with the government, NGOs like Gram Vikas and institutions like XIM Bhubaneswar. He has left XIMB in 2005, to co-found the Centurion Group of Institutes, which have their base in the naxal infested South Orissa region Prof Narasimha Rao has worked across the core sector in areas of rural development and upliftment. He has been a social advisor on “Project Water” funded by the Indo – Canadian Water Facility.

About Session:

The discussion started with a small talk on the advancement of Educational Technology. Technology has significantly improved students’ written communication skills. There is an increased interaction over the internet platforms like Viber, Skype, and Whats-app, where students communicate in written form. Students conveniently use digital tools like writing and editing programs, as well as automated grammar checkers to improve their written communication skills. Technology has saved students’ time to simplify the overwhelming assignments in modern learning.

The session then proceeded with all the details regarding the new technologies that can be introduced to the students; Digital platforms like citation generators save students’ time in adopting writing formats and referencing styles like APA, MLA, Chicago, Harvard, or AGLC. The writing process becomes faster; hence, students can save some precious time to improve on their writing skills and conduct meticulous research. Additionally, editing and proofreading solutions like Grammarly check textual documents, identify mistakes, and make corrections instantly to speed up revisions.
