Resource person:

Dr. Dipankar Bhattacharya (Professor in SoAS, CUTM)

About resource person:

Dr. Dipakar Bhattacharya, is a Professor in Centurion University of Technology and Management, Odisha, India. He is a chemical engineer. His expertise in areas involving chemistry, chemical engineering, ceramics, sensors, biomimics, microbes, image analysis, machine learning etc. He did postdoc at University of Quebec at Chicoutimi, Canada. He is a visiting faculty at Department of Polymer Sc. and Tech, Calcutta University.

About the session:

Writing a paper about a proposal and getting it accepted in a peer-reviewed journal is hard work and an important part of the careers of many scientists and engineers. It requires learning and executing a specific formula for presenting scientific work. This FDP is all about teaching the style and conventions of writing for a peer reviewed science or engineering journal and is highly recommended for early-career researchers who are relatively new to writing and publishing papers. The forenoon session was in theory mode and afternoon session was workshop mode.
