About the resource person:

A.Avinash working as Assistant Professor, Dept of CSE, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Andhra Pradesh . Interested to work on Machine learning,Natural Language Processing,Problem Solving Methodologies , and ChatBot.

About the Session:

A.Avinash has talks about WordPress is among the most powerful tools to create websites, both normal and experienced users do use it to run modern websites. Web developers also choose it to save their time and efforts developing websites from scratch. Broadly speaking, both “WordPress Developer” and “Web Developer” are skilled programmers who write code to build websites: Web Developer is a broad terminology of anyone who codes websites regardless of the used tools or techniques.

Objectives: To understand How to Build a Word Press Website and to use the platform for web application development too

Outcomes:

The majority of professional web developers do use Word Press to build websites, BUT not all websites. It is only the experienced web developer who really knows when to use it. In this article, we explore why web developers really use Word Press, when they use it, and if they should learn it for their career.
