A Report on

Webinar on Quirky Minds

25 April 2021

A webinar on quirky minds was organized by the School of Management which was coordinated by Dr. Prajna Pani, Professor of English. The communication workshop covered group discussions, classic GD Hacks, Insights on Placements and witnessed the participation of 392 participants. Mr. Sibasis Das (Alumni 2008- 12), Director & co-founder, Backwoods Chrysalis, Private Limited started the session with the misconceptions about GD: Can I avoid that? I think I will 'bluff', My English is good, I will kill the competition, Why to prepare? I know current affairs, I am good at arguments, I have a dominating voice, I am good looking. He discussed the Recruiter 's Viewpoint which covered Articulation of Thoughts, Presentation Skills, Depth of Knowledge/Facts/Figures, Personality/Leadership Quality, Team Work, People Management Skills, Language Proficiency, Behaviour & Etiquettes, Listening Skills & Attentiveness, Judgement & Attitude and Open-mindedness. Other highlights of the workshop include:

- Let's understand a GO setup
- Planning & Preparation
- How to Start?
- Body Language & Personal Appearance
- Tone & Pitch of Talking

Mr. Sibasis said that 0% of conflicts are due to difference of opinion and 90% are due to wrong tone of voice.

The workshop continued with a discussion on Data Prerequisites, how to make your mark, Be a Team Player, be a Moderator, Dos & Don'ts and How to Conclude a GD. The Classic GD Hacks touched the areas on:

- When you have no information about the topic
- When you feel dominated by others

- Opponents do not let you speak
- The Brownie Pointers
- Why not ask a question
- Never switch sides
- Build upon other's data/points
- Always be willing to look at both sides of the discussion.
- Understanding the other side is the best way to strengthen your own

The workshop ended with a motivating line 'A good start is half the battle makes sure it's smart!'
