REPORT ON
CAREER COUNSELLING Phase II (SoM)
13 September 2019

A one-day workshop on “Career Communication” was conducted by the Department of English, School of Management on 13th September 2019 for the students of School of Engineering and Technology in which a total of 110 students participated.

The workshop was divided into two sessions. The first session was delivered by Prof Prajna Pani, Professor of English, who delivered lecture on Soft Skills: A major key for a career success. Her presentation covered areas like SWOT analysis, useful links and tools related to the communication skill through which students can build their career. After the presentation, the participants were given few quizzes and exercises on communication skills and their performance was evaluated. The students got insightful information and experienced some fun in the first session.

Student counselling in progress on 13th September 2019

In the second session, Prof. Girish Prasad Rath delivered his lecture on some of the techniques to be used for better communication skills. He delivered on the simple methods to improve the basic communication skills and emphasized on interview related topics. The students were asked to give their own introductions. They were asked to read out the drafts and necessary corrections and clarifications were suggested by the resource person.

The workshop indeed provided a wonderful platform for students to learn the techniques in communication skills for their career elevation and employability in the present scenario. In the last part of the workshop, few participants gave their feedback explaining how the program helped them improve their communication skills and made them more confident in using English in a better way. The participants through their active participation knew their lacuna and tried to improvise on their communication skills.

The department of English was thanked profusely for initiating such an insightful and thought provoking workshop.
