MINUTES OF THE MEETING

The Anti-Ragging Committee comprising Internal and External members of the Parlakhemundi Campus of the Centurion University of Technology and Management had the meeting on 14.08.2018 in its Board Room, under the Chairmanship of Dr. S. P. Nanda. Dr. Durga Prasad Padhi, Convener of the Committee welcomed all the members to the meeting and initiated the discussion relating to the complaint filed (vide Case No. ARCC/OR-4573, Dated 11-08-2018 in the MHRD website) by the brother of a student studying in 2nd Year Civil Engineering branch. The details of the discussions, findings and actions are given below.

1. The committee members had detail discussion with the complainant, complainant's brother (2nd year student) and the accused students.
2. There was discussion among the complainant's brother (second year student) and four other students (Mr. Seraj Chowdary, 3rd year Diploma Mechanical, Mr. Anish Kumar Singh, 4th year B. Tech. Mechanical, Mr. Amit Kumar, 3rd year Diploma Mechanical, Mr. Shubham Kumar, 4th year B. Tech CSE and Mr. Prakash Mishra, 3rd year Diploma Mechanical) outside the Auditorium on 3rd August after an informal interaction. All the students involved in the discussion belong to same locality, i.e. Jamshedpur. The discussion led to argument on different topics. They had verbal altercation on trivial issues (referring somebody as "TUM" instead of "AAP"). The second year student felt offended that his views were not respected by others and making a trivial issue as serious. Out of disgust he informed his brother about his unhappiness. Subsequently his brother, who lives in Kolkata, filed a complaint at the HRD website without enquiring the real situation.
3. The Committee found that it was a case of misunderstanding and misreporting.

4. Accordingly, considering the trivial nature of the issue, the Anti-Ragging Committee has counseled the Complainant, Complainant's brother and the accused students to be sensitive to other's feelings in different contexts. They were also informed about what constitutes ragging and the consequences of indulging in such activity. They are under constant counselling and watch by the university faculty and staff so that no such unpleasant situation arises in future.
5. The complainant and the complainant's brother are satisfied with the care that the University takes, including round the clock availability of operational and senior officers in case of any need.
6. The Hostel Warden, Superintendent and Chief Hostel Superintendent are instructed to keep an eye to prevent any such future altercation.
7. The Complainant has requested not to dwell further on this small issue.
8. Students involved in this issue have been warned and undertaking is taken from the students not to involve in such activities in future or else disciplinary action may be initiated.
9. The meeting was adjourned with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
