

Song competition on World Aids Day, Balangir
Date: 1st December, 2018

At CUTM, Balangir, December 1 marks World AIDS Day. CUTM is adamant that the younger generation can limit the spread of HIV and increase awareness. Dr. Prafulla Kumar Sahu, professor of the department of pharmacy, and Dr. Nilaya Kumar Mohanty, associate professor and chairman of the department of physics, ignited the lamp to begin the programme as the major guests for this occasion. The students took part in a music contest. There was a lot of fire and passion when the competition began. The audience was captivated by the students' melodic voice. They received praise for the captivating performance they gave. The contest winner received the award. Mrs. Prativa Satpathy, the CSR coordinator, gave a motivational address to end the event and cast the deciding vote.
