

One Act play competition on International Anti-corruption Day, Balangir Date: 9th December, 2018

Increasing public awareness of corruption and the contribution the Convention provides to preventing and combating it are the goals of International Anti-Corruption Day, which is observed on December 9th, 2018 in CUTM, Balangir campus. Both Dr. Pratibha Rani Deep, assistant professor of the department of Bbotany, and Dr. Bhairaba Kumar Majhi, assistant professor and head of the mathematics department, gave educational speeches on "corruption," and all of our university's students pledged to strive toward a future with no corruption. An exceptionally passionate group of students participated in a one-act drama competition with the theme "When discrimination, suggestion, and corruption are abolished, a nation will become great." The CSR coordinator, Mrs. Prativa Satpathy, concluded the event with a motivational speech and gave the vote of gratitude.
