

Music Chair Competition on International Women's Day, Balangir
Date: 8th March, 2019

On March 8, 2019, International Women's Day was observed at CUTM Balangir. Increased student awareness of women's status and respect is the aim of Women's Day celebrations. Many of the female staff members and students participated in the Music Chair Game that day, which was held in the evening. At the start of the programme, Mrs. Namita Panda, an assistant professor in the department of botany, gave a brief presentation on Women's Day. The players are counted before the game begins, and the chairs are arranged in a circle with one fewer chair than there are players. Participants circle the chairs as the music plays, and when it stops, everyone rushes to find a seat. In each round, everyone except one participant was given a seat. Each round has one loser who is then required to exit the game. The game is done when there is just one chair left and one of the two surviving players sits in it first. At the conclusion, Mrs. Namita Panda gave out prizes to the champions of the music chair game. The CSR coordinator, Mrs. Prativa Satpathy, expressed gratitude and thanked the distinguished guest and staff for attending. She also praised the students for their excellent work.
