

Cultural Night on Fresher's Day, Paralakhemundi

Date: 6th September, 2018

Every student anticipates the "Fresher's Party," the most notable event of the college, with bated breath from the moment they are admitted. Every new student at CUTM University Paralakhemundi campus will remember the 6th of September 2018 as a special day. The day of the new students was one of anticipation, joy, music, fervour, laughter, and happiness. In the same way that sunshine not only dispels the darkness of night, but also brings benefits and happiness into our lives, light is thought to be exceedingly sacred and a sign of prosperity. With the blessings of the goddess saraswati, our dignitaries Honourable Vice President Prof. D. N. Rao, Vice Chancellor Supriya Patnaik, and registrar Prof. Anita Patra lit the lamp to mark the beginning of the event.

The fresher's celebration, which was hosted by the campus' CSaR team, greeted all first-year students at the Paralakhemundi campus. The gathering was attended by around 400 persons. Members of the singing club performed other culture programme after the dance club did the welcome dance. Lastly, the event was concluded by Dean of student affairs, Dr. Sushant Kumar Pattnaik.
