

Drama on Gandhi Jayanti, Paralakhemundi

Date: 2nd October, 2018

On the anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi's birth, CUTM and Paralakhemundi conducted Gandhi Jayanti. About 200 people, including faculty, staff, and students, attended the ceremony. All of the staff and students were welcomed as the Gandhi Jayanti celebrations got underway, and the students explained why the day was significant. The program started with the lighting of the lamp by the honorable vice chancellor, Prof. Supriya Pattnaik, and the registrar, Prof. Anita Patra, followed by a heartfelt prayer session called "Sarva Dharma Prarthana." The message was delivered by Prof. Supriya Pattnaik, encouraging listeners to adhere to Mahatma Gandhi's teachings on peace and harmony. She claimed that on this day, people remember a man who significantly influenced the life they are leading today.

All students and staff felt patriotic as the speech finally came to an end. On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, a university arranged a drama production in which several schools actively took part. The audience was inspired by the program as Bapu's great deeds were remembered. His favorite prayer, "Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram," by the dean of student welfare Dr. Susant Kumar Pattnaik marked the event's conclusion.
