

Jhoti Chita art Competition for Republic Day, Paralakhemundi

Date: 25th January, 2019

Student Paralakhemundi from CUTM participated in the Jhoti Chita Competition that was conducted on January 25, 2019, in honour of Republic Day, with enthusiasm. The Jhoti Chita art competition is organised by the Dean of Student Welfare the day before Republic Day in order to preserve and promote Odia traditions.

Traditional Oriya floor and wall art known as "Jhoti" or "Chita" is quite common in rural areas. Jhoti and rangoli are very dissimilar. While rangolis are created using coloured powders, jhoti uses a traditional white, semi-liquid rice paste, or pithau, to create line art. In this kind of art, the fingers serve as the paintbrush.

The dean of administration, Dr. S.P., presented the prizes to the students in the order of first, second, and third. Prof. Supriya Pattnaik, the honourable vice chancellor, and Prof. Anita Patra, the registrar, both expressed their gratitude for the effort the student-teachers put up to make the celebrations so special and lively.
