

Creative Writing Competition on Annual day (Gajajyoti 2018), Paralakhemundi Date: 25th March 2019

On March 25, 2019, a creative writing competition was held on the Paralakhemundi campus of CUTM. The chief guests were Honourable Vice President Prof. D. N. Rao, Vice Chancellor Prof. Supriya Patnaik, and Registrar Prof. Anita Patra. A statement from the Vice President opens the programme. In his address, he also mentioned that creative writing uses imagination to portray the writer's feelings and thoughts. The writer's need to express thoughts and sentiments through writing is more important than the constrictive requirements of factual accuracy and logical progression in expository writing. Students from many departments took part in this competition. The subjects for the students' essays were provided. This contest was one of several entertaining contests that provided students with a stage to practise expressing their thoughts and opinions in various contexts. Students were able to understand topics, expand their vocabulary, spell better, and utilise proper English thanks to this competition. Students could write more skilfully as a result. Children took part in the competition seriously. Everybody admired their initiative and hard work. The students received rewards from Vice-Chancellor. Dr Susanta Kumar Patnaik, dean of student affairs, concluded the occasion.
