

Debate Competition on Annual day (Gajajyoti), Paralakhemundi Date: 25th March 2019

On March 25, 2019, the Paralakhemundi campus held a debate competition with the topic "How corruption in India may be checked." Many students showed up for this occasion. Honourable Vice-Chancellor Prof. Supriya Patnaik and Registrar Prof. Anita Patra judged the argument competition. The audience had a good time watching the competition. Each debater received applause and cheers for their incisive arguments and polished delivery. The tournament made the public aware of numerous facets of Indian corruption. The participants were then given a certificate, a prize, and a crest. The Registrar gave his presidential speech and thanked everyone for attending the event at the conclusion of the gathering. She praised each debater for their sound justifications. The Registrar gave his presidential speech and thanked everyone for attending the event at the conclusion of the gathering. She praised each debater for their sound justifications. The competition brought many aspects of India's corruption to light, which made the audience quite happy as well.
