

Debate competition on International Anti-Corruption Day, Rayagada
Date: 9th December, 2018

The purpose of International Anti-Corruption Day, which is commemorated on December 9th, 2018, is to increase public awareness of corruption and the contribution that the Convention makes to preventing and combatting it. "A nation will become great when reservation, suggestion, and corruption are abolished." Therefore, corruption needs to be eradicated, and awareness of it needs to start at a very young age. In universities, this day was observed by students. Dr. Chandra Sekhar Patro, Professor and Associate Professor Dr. Gopal Krishna Padhy, Dept. of Pharmacy delivered an educational address on "corruption," and all of our university's students made a commitment to work toward a future in which there is no corruption. Students took part in a debate competition extremely enthusiastically. Finally, Mr. Deepankar Rath, the CSR coordinator, brought the event to a close with a vote of appreciation.
