

Handkerchief game & Music chair game for International Women's day, Rayagada
Date: 8th March 2019

At CUTM, Rayagada, on March 8, 2019, International Women's Day was celebrated. The goal of Women's Day celebrations is to increase student understanding of the status and dignity of women. On this day, the Handkerchief Game and Music Chair Game were held in the evening, and many of the female staff members and students took part. Our esteemed Dr. Chandra Sekhar Patro, Professor, and Associate Professor Dr. Gopal Krishna Padhy, Dept. of Pharmacy, presented a brief speech on Women's Day at the beginning of the event. The game starts by counting the players and setting the chairs in a circle with one fewer chair than the players. As the music plays, the participants circle the chairs, and when the music stops, everyone scrambles to find a seat. All except one player in each round received a seat. There is one loser in each round, and that player must leave the game. When there is only one chair left, and one of the two remaining players gets his butt in it first, the game is over. Dr. Chandra Sekhar Patro distributed prizes to the winners of the music chair game and the handkerchief game at the finale. The CSaR coordinator, Mr. Deepankar Rath, thanked the distinguished guest and employees for coming and extended his gratitude. He also commended the students for their outstanding performance.
