

Virtual Song competition on International Women's Day, Rayagada
Date: 8th March 2021

8th March marks International Women's Day. IWD is a day to celebrate activists on a global level, raising awareness of their work and the challenges they face. It's also a great opportunity to network and connect with people committed to gender equality. The students took part in a music contest. There was a lot of fire and passion when the competition began. The audience was captivated by the students' melodic voice. They received praise for the captivating performance they gave. The contest winner received the award. Mrs. Kamini Sethy, the CSR coordinator, gave a motivational address to end the event and cast the deciding vote.
