

English Essay Competition on Mother Language Day, Rayagada Date: 21st February 2022

Unlike every year, this year's mother language day was celebrated in a way no one expected. The program was inaugurated. We are proud to proclaim that in our Rayagada campus we have over 30+ language speaking people. The program commenced with a short documentary made by the students of team CSR guided Deepankar Rath. Up next there was several dance and song performance by our students of dance and music club who performed on different languages followed by a competition on English essay and prize was distributed to the winners . The 2nd issue of our very own wall magazine, Shaswat was released on that very day. The wall magazine depicted several write-ups in different languages done by our students.
