

Brief description

Dr. Margaret Kumar works as the Higher Degrees by Research, Language and Learning Advisor at Deakin University. Through her work, Dr Kumar has provided perspectives on how learning and teaching practices for international students could be mediated. Her research interests include international students in higher education, experiential learning, postcolonial theories, and inclusivity in education.