Event Details:

On April 2nd, 2025, the School of Nursing at Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi, observed World Autism Awareness Day with the aim of increasing awareness, empathy, and support for individuals with autism spectrum disorder (ASD). The event was thoughtfully designed to provide nursing students with a deeper understanding of autism through engaging and educational activities.

Event Highlights:

The event began with an introductory speech by Subhankar Mistry, a student of third semester, who welcomed the dignitaries and participants. He spoke on the significance of Autism Awareness Day, particularly within healthcare education, and emphasized the importance of fostering empathy and inclusion when caring for individuals with autism.

Following the opening address, Subhankar Mistry presented a video session that offered a comprehensive insight into ASD. The visual content featured real-life stories, expert opinions, and informative details that helped students understand both the behavioural and emotional experiences of those living with autism.

An interactive discussion was then conducted by Ms. Rasmi Jena, where students actively participated by sharing their perspectives and asking questions. The session helped bridge theoretical knowledge with real-world application, particularly in how nurses can play a supportive role in autism care.

Next, Ipsita Priyadarshini Pathy a student of second semester delivered a detailed seminar focusing on the etiology, clinical features, preventive strategies, and treatment approaches related to autism. Her presentation was informative and covered essential nursing considerations, highlighting the importance of early diagnosis, intervention, and a multidisciplinary approach in managing ASD.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Subhankar Mistry, who extended sincere appreciation to the resource persons, guests, faculty members, and students for their enthusiastic involvement. He acknowledged the collaborative spirit that made the event successful and impactful.

Acknowledgement:

Heartfelt thanks to Mr. Subhankar Mistry, for his excellent coordination and leadership in organizing the program. We also extend our gratitude to Ms. Rasmi Jena for facilitating a dynamic and engaging discussion, and to Ms. Ipsita Priyadarshini Padhy for her in-depth and enlightening seminar.

The success of this awareness program was made possible by the active participation of the students and the support of the nursing faculty. The initiative served as a powerful reminder of the role healthcare professionals play in promoting inclusivity, compassion, and better care for individuals with autism.
