Event Details:

On March 5th, 2025, the School of Nursing of Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi, conducted a thought-provoking seminar to mark National Multiple Personality Day. The objective was to promote awareness about multiple personality disorder—clinically known as dissociative identity disorder—and to shed light on various mental health challenges through interactive learning.

Event Highlights:

The event was held in the School of Nursing and brought together enthusiastic students and faculty members from the School of Veterinary and Animal Sciences and the School of Applied Sciences, ensuring a multidisciplinary dialogue on mental health.

Ms. Swati Kiran, the Event Coordinator, opened the program with a heartfelt welcome address, laying a strong foundation for the day's discussions.

Chief Guests Present:

- Dr. R. K. Swain, Dean, School of Veterinary and Animal Sciences
- Dr. Ashok Mishra, Dean, School of Applied Sciences

In addition, Prof. S.N. Sandhya, Vice-Principal of the School of Nursing, enriched the session with her insights on the need for mental health advocacy. The speakers discussed the root causes, identifying signs, and treatment options for dissociative identity disorder and related psychological conditions, highlighting the need for early intervention and access to professional help.

Faculty and students from various departments participated actively, promoting a comprehensive understanding of mental well-being across academic disciplines.

Student Skit Presentation:

The seminar was followed by a compelling skit performed by second-year B.Sc. Nursing students. The performance depicted different mental health conditions, illustrating the internal battles individuals face and emphasizing the importance of compassion, timely support, and therapeutic care. The skit was praised for its emotional depth and strong message, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

Acknowledgement:

We express our sincere gratitude to Dr. R. K. Swain and Dr. Ashok Mishra for gracing the event with their presence and thoughtful contributions. Our special thanks go to Prof. S.N. Sandhya, Vice-Principal, School of Nursing, for her continuous guidance and encouragement. We appreciate the dedicated work of Ms. Swati Kiran, Faculty Coordinator, for seamlessly organizing the event, and recognize Asish Choudhury (B.Sc. Nursing, 3rd Semester), Student Coordinator, for his commendable coordination efforts.

We also thank all participating students and faculty members whose collective involvement made the event a powerful platform for mental health education. This initiative has helped cultivate awareness, understanding, and empathy toward individuals living with mental health conditions.
