International Women's Day Celebration

Date: 7th March 2024

Venue: Seminar Hall MBA Block, Centurion University of Technology and Management

Organized By: School Of Management

Purpose: The International Women's Day celebration held on 7th March 2024 at Centurion University of Technology and Management aimed to honor women's achievements, raise awareness about gender equality, and foster a supportive and inclusive environment within the university community. The event sought to recognize women's contributions in various fields and inspire future generations to strive for gender parity and empowerment.

Event Highlights: The celebration commenced with an inaugural ceremony in the university auditorium, featuring speeches by faculty members, student representatives, and invited guests. The speakers emphasized the importance of International Women's Day as a catalyst for change and highlighted the need for collective action to address gender disparities and promote women's rights.

The International Women's Day celebration at Centurion University of Technology and Management was a resounding success, thanks to the collective efforts of organizers, participants, and supporters. The event provided a platform for dialogue, reflection, and action on issues of gender equality and women's empowerment, reaffirming the university's commitment to creating a more inclusive and equitable society.

Moving forward, it is essential to build on the momentum generated by the celebration and continue advocating for gender equality and women's rights through ongoing initiatives, policies, and programs. By fostering a culture of respect, diversity, and empowerment, Centurion University can contribute to meaningful social change and pave the way for a brighter and more inclusive future for all.
