Their insightful speeches emphasized the pressing need for oral health awareness, especially among youth and underserved populations.

Dr. Sambid Swain emphasized how oral health often gets neglected despite being an essential part of general well-being. He stressed the importance of cultivating good oral hygiene habits early in life to prevent future complications.

Dr. Pritam Tripathi offered a unique angle by connecting dental health with everyday routines and nutrition. He urged the audience to adopt consistent oral hygiene practices and highlighted the critical role of academic institutions in fostering health literacy.

Dr. S.N. Sandhya brought forward a healthcare-centered viewpoint, speaking compassionately about routine dental care and brushing practices. She shed light on the significance of dental health in rural communities, and how it directly impacts one's confidence and quality of life.

Together, their contributions provided a comprehensive understanding of oral health, combining professional knowledge with practical life lessons.

Acknowledgement:

We extend our sincere thanks to our esteemed speakers — Dr. Sambid Swain, Dr. Pritam Tripathi, and Dr. S.N. Sandhya — for their valuable time, words of encouragement, and strong advocacy for oral health. Their presence added immense value to the program and inspired students to take oral care seriously.

Special appreciation goes to Ms. Nirupama Patnaik, a talented 2nd-semester nursing student, for her compelling presentation on "Healthy Mouth, Bright Smile." Her talk was both informative and engaging.

We also acknowledge the commendable efforts of the 2nd-semester students who delivered an impactful skit, creatively raising awareness about oral health issues.

Our heartfelt thanks to the faculty mentors and event coordinators for their unwavering support and behind-the-scenes dedication, which ensured the success of the event.
