A standout moment of the event was a skit performed by the School of Nursing students.

Through a relatable and engaging storyline, the skit emphasized the importance of seeking care from specialized medical professionals for hearing issues rather than relying on self-treatment or misinformation. The performance effectively conveyed the message of responsible health-seeking behavior when it comes to ear and hearing concerns.

The event was further enriched by the participation of faculty and students from the School of Applied Sciences, whose contributions made the seminar more dynamic and collaborative.

Their involvement fostered a multidisciplinary perspective and broadened the learning scope for everyone present.

The day concluded on an impactful note, with key takeaways emphasizing the value of early diagnosis, proper ear care practices, and a commitment to preserving hearing health. The event fulfilled its mission of spreading awareness and promoting preventive strategies in the field of hearing health.

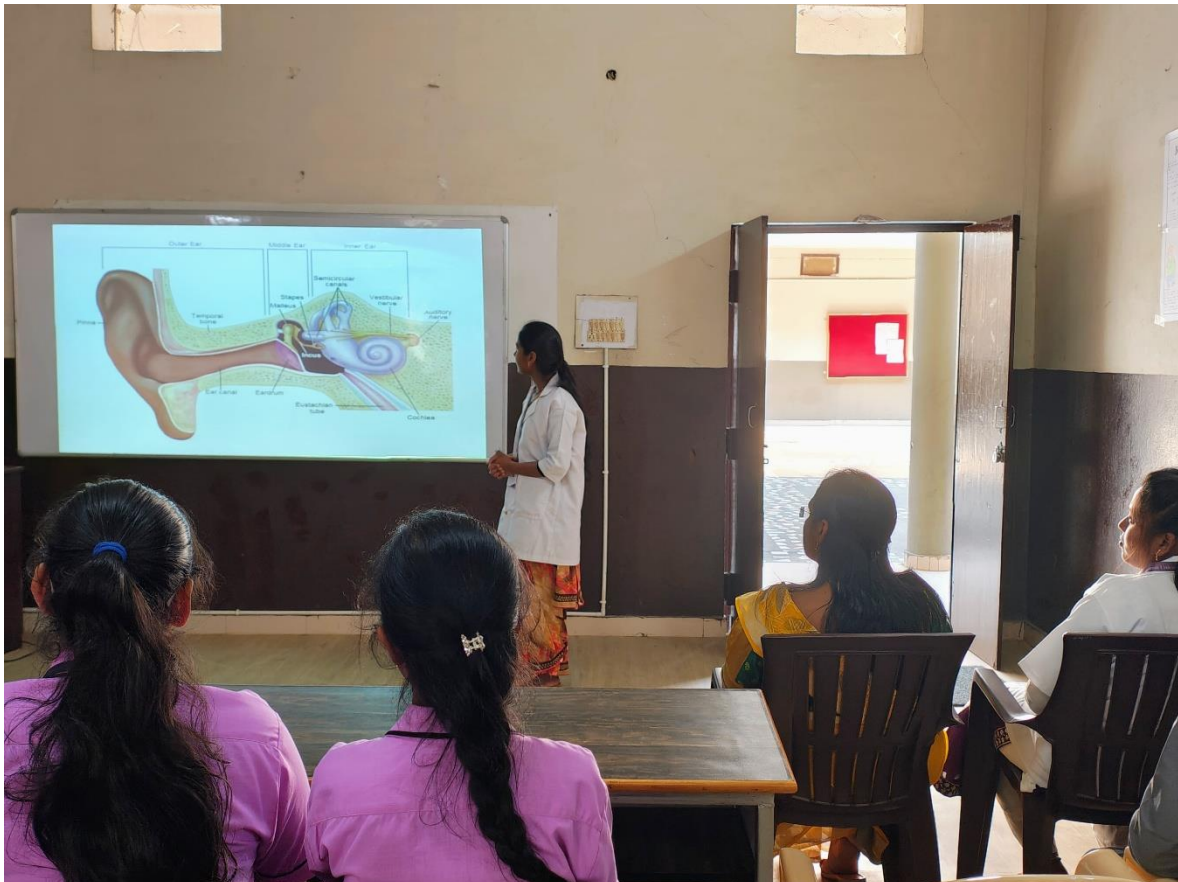

Acknowledgement:

We sincerely thank Miss Soumyashree Pradhan, Event Coordinator, for her thoughtful presentation and seamless coordination of the program. Our heartfelt appreciation goes to Akash Pothal, Student Coordinator (B.Sc. Nursing, 2nd Year), for his excellent organization and enthusiastic participation. We also extend our gratitude to the faculty and students of both the School of Nursing and the School of Applied Sciences for their active engagement and contributions.
