Event Details:

On the occasion of World Suicide Prevention Day – 2025, the School of Nursing, Centurion University of Technology and Management, Paralakhemundi campus, organized a meaningful awareness program to highlight the critical issue of suicide prevention and promote mental well-being.

The event commenced with an introductory speech by K. Lahari, a 4th semester B.Sc. Nursing student and the Student Coordinator, who welcomed the audience and set the tone for a thoughtful and impactful session. The program was graced by Dr. Ritesh Kumar, Dean Student Affairs, and Dr. K. C. Setthy, Assistant Professor, School of Engineering and Technology (SoET), as the Chief Guests. Both dignitaries shared their valuable insights on the causes of suicide, the societal stigma surrounding mental health, and emphasized preventive strategies that can help save lives.

Following the thought-provoking speeches, students from the 1st Semester B.Sc. Nursing performed an impactful skit, portraying various social, emotional, and psychological factors that affect an individual and may provoke suicidal thoughts. The skit effectively illustrated real-life scenarios, highlighting the importance of empathy, support systems, and early intervention to prevent suicide.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Sanskriti Raj, a 1st semester B.Sc. Nursing student, expressing gratitude to the chief guests, faculty members, and all participants for making the event a success.

Event Highlights:
