Event Details:

On 11th July 2025, the School of Nursing, in collaboration with the NSS Unit of Centurion University of Technology and Management (CUTM), Paralakhemundi, organized a meaningful program to mark World Population Day. The theme for the event was: “Empowering Youth to Build the Families They Want.”

This year’s observance focused on acknowledging the role of youth in shaping future families and addressing the needs of the largest generation of young people in history.

Event Highlights:

- The event was hosted in the Seminar Hall of the School of Nursing and was attended by students and faculty members from the Divya Jyoti School of Nursing.
- The program commenced with an inspirational address by Prof. S.N. Sandhya, Vice Principal, who highlighted the pressing issues related to population growth and stressed the importance of youth empowerment in responsible family planning and sustainable development.

- A debate competition was organized in alignment with the theme, allowing students to express their viewpoints both in favor of and against population-related challenges such as healthcare accessibility, education, government schemes, and youth awareness.
- The participants showcased excellent preparation, clarity in argument, and a deep understanding of population dynamics. Their enthusiasm and insightful presentations enriched the session meaningfully.
- The audience remained attentive and disciplined, contributing to the overall success and decorum of the event.

Acknowledgement:

We extend our sincere gratitude to Prof. S.N. Sandhya, Vice Principal, for her motivational guidance and presence. Special thanks to the faculty coordinators Ms. Rasmi Jena and Ms. T. Sunita for their planning and support, as well as Ms. Swati Kiran, NSS Coordinator, for her effective coordination. We also appreciate the efforts of the Student Coordinator from the 2nd Semester, Divya Jyoti School of Nursing, for managing the student participants and contributing to the smooth conduct of the event.
