Date: 20.01.2025

Venue: School of Nursing,

Organized by: School of Nursing in Collaboration with DHH, PKD

The Universal Health Coverage (UHC) Day was observed with great enthusiasm, highlighting the importance of accessible and affordable healthcare for all. The event was jointly organized by the School of Nursing in collaboration with District Headquarters Hospital (DHH), PKD. Several esteemed guests from various medical and public health offices graced the occasion and shared their valuable insights on achieving universal health coverage.

Guest Speakers and Highlights

1. Dr. Patit Paban Barik (DHH, PKD)

Dr. Barik emphasized the need for strengthening healthcare infrastructure to ensure that every individual, regardless of socio-economic status, receives quality medical care.

2. Ms. Nayana Malik (Assistant District Public Health Communication Officer)

She highlighted the role of effective communication in spreading awareness about health services and government initiatives that promote universal health coverage.

3. Ms. Mamata Padhi (Public Health Extension Officer)

Ms. Padhi spoke about the importance of community participation in achieving healthcare goals and the need to improve outreach programs.

4. Dr. K. Swain (Dean, SOVAS)

Dr. Swain discussed advancements in medical sciences and how they contribute to better healthcare accessibility for all sections of society.

5. Mr. Khageswar (Block Program Manager, Gurandi)

He provided insights into various government programs and their implementation at the grassroots level to ensure that healthcare services reach the most vulnerable communities.

6. Dr. S.P. Nand (Dean, Academic)

Dr. Nand emphasized the role of medical education in preparing future healthcare professionals to serve society effectively.

7. Dr. Durga Prasad Padhi (Director, Administration)

Dr. Padhi elaborated on administrative strategies that can enhance the efficiency of health services and ensure better patient care.

8. Prof. S.N. Sandhya

Prof. Sandhya shared a comprehensive view on global efforts to achieve universal health coverage and the lessons that can be learned to improve healthcare delivery.

Conclusion & Vote of Thanks

The event successfully highlighted the significance of universal health coverage and the collective efforts required to achieve this goal. The speakers stressed the need for policy reforms, increased investment in healthcare, and active community participation.

A special vote of thanks was extended to all the dignitaries, organizers, faculty members, students, and participants for their valuable contributions to making this program a success. The event concluded with a commitment to work towards a healthier and more inclusive healthcare system for all.
