School of Management, Centurion University of Technology and Management organised a 5-day residential Training Program “Management Development Program for Banking Professionals”. A team of 20 delegates from Rastriya Banijya Bank (RBB) of Nepal arrived on 15th September 2024 at the Paralakhemundi Campus of Centurion University to attend the program.

In the inauguration of the program, the Registrar of the University, Prof. (Dr.) Anita Patra welcomed the delegates from Nepal and expressed her gratitude towards the bankers who played a very important role in the financial sector. She briefly explained the role of Centurion University as a skilled University. She addressed the delegates emphasizing the skill courses and labs of the university to promote hands-on skills for the development of enterprises. She advised the delegates to get business ideas by visiting different units promoted by the University beyond the training programs.

Prof. D.N. Rao, Vice President, CUTM took a brief session about cultivating mindset in the present situation. Prof. KVD Prakash, Dean IIE & HRD, CUTM took the session on self-awareness and emotional intelligence, developing effective leadership abilities and management skills, coordination, cooperation, and collaboration for team building in the banking sector. Delegates visited the cashew processing unit, Nautala Poultry Farm, and BREDS Nursery with Dr. Atanu Deb, Associate Professor, Department of Agriculture Extension education, M.S.Swaminathan School of Agriculture to understand the concept of Agri- AgriEntrepreneurship, for Agrian and Non-Agrian. Prof. J. Anil Kumar, Professor of Practice, CUTM took the session on Customer Service, Sales Techniques, and Marketing in the banking industry. Prof. Mukti Kanta Mishra, President, CUTM took the session on Managing Change and Uncertainty.

The whole training program is based on practical examples and case studies. Delegates visited both the Paralakhemundi and Bhubaneswar campus of Centurion University. Delegates visited different banks and interacted with their branch manager to understand the status of the banking industry and SME Financing in India. The overall feedback on the training program was excellent, given by the delegates. At the end of the training program, certificates were distributed by Prof. Supriya Pattanayak, Vice Chancellor, CUTM
